

The College has Open Labs available for student use; with trained technicians assist those that are having software or hardware issues. The College provides over 2,000 computers with application software for use in classrooms and labs located in the Advanced Technologies Center, Health Technology Center, Spring Lake Campus, Paul H. Thompson Library, Success Center, Continuing Education Center, and the Horticulture Educational Center.